Romeoville Offers Job Fair and Workshops to Those Looking for Employment

The Village of Romeoville, in partnership with the Work Force Center of Will County and the Romeoville Area Chamber of Commerce, will be holding a job fair on Wednesday, March 6 from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Edward Hospital Athletic & Event Center (55 Phelps Ave.). Nearly 40 employers are scheduled to have tables at the event, offering a range of jobs from health care professionals and cooks to forklift operators and IT support. There is no need to register and there is no cost to attend. For a full list of attendees and job openings, visit romeoville.org and click "Jobs and Volunteer" on the left side of the homepage.

"Job fairs are a great opportunity for our residents," stated Mayor John Noak. "This is another way for us to partner with the business community."

Job seekers will be able to polish their resume and interview skills before the fair at two free workshops to be held on Tuesday, February 19th. "Standout Resumes" will start at 10 a.m. and "Successful Interviewing" will start at 1:00 p.m. Both will be held at the Edward Hospital Athletic & Event Center. No registration is required.
