Romeoville Recreation Employee Honored with Award

Congratulations to Cassandra Proctor, Program Supervisor at the Romeoville Recreation Department, who has received the Young Professional of the Year Award by the South Suburban Park & Recreation Association (SSPRPA). This award recognizes an individual who demonstrates potential in making significant contributions to the park and recreation profession.

"We are so proud that Cassie's efforts have been recognized. She is an asset to our Recreation Department staff and always brings a positive attitude to our team," said Kelly Rajzer, Director of Parks and Recreation.

Cassie has been with the Romeoville Recreation Department for 4 years. She has been an active member of SSPRPA and is currently the Social Committee Chair.
