Creamery Headquarters Coming to Romeoville

The headquarters and event space for the Creamery is coming to Romeoville.

The Creamery, an ice cream and dessert shop with seven suburban locations, has signed a lease to open their headquarters at 1211 Remington Blvd in Romeoville. Although they will not be selling ice cream at this location, their 10,000 square foot space consists of the corporate office and catering operations for the Creamery as well as an event rental space called Remington Place. Users will be able to bring in their own food or cater through the Creamery. The Creamery also does outside event catering for large and small scale events. “Partnering with the local community is the cornerstone of everything the Creamery stands for,” said Leah Sisk, Director of Sales & Marketing. “We are excited to root ourselves in Romeoville and look forward to serving the community our ice cream treats through our stores, private events, community festivals and event space.”

“I used to go to the Creamery as a kid, so I’m very familiar with them and the excellent product they produce,” recalled Mayor Noak. “I’m very excited to welcome them to our community.”
