Romeoville Unveils New Seal for Official Documents

The Village of Romeoville has officially adopted a new village seal, which features an outline of Village Hall. The seal is mostly used on official Village documents and has undergone many subtle changes over the years. This redesign brings it firmly into the modern era.

“We chose Village Hall to feature on the new seal because it is a symbol of community,” said Mayor Noak. “It’s more than a building. It’s the heart of our local government, where progress happens, and where we come together for community engagements, service, and civic pride.”
