Four Days of Fun, Food, Music, and Family at RomeoFest

The Village of Romeoville is gearing up for their biggest and most beloved summer celebration, RomeoFest, which is happening Thursday, August 7 through Sunday, August 10 between Village Hall and the Recreation Center (1050 W. Romeo Road – 900 W. Romeo Road). This annual tradition brings together families, neighbors, and visitors for four unforgettable days packed with live entertainment, carnival rides and games, delicious food, and community spirit!

Enjoy bingo, the car show, and friendly tournaments, plus extra-special experiences like the family fun Color Run, breathtaking fireworks, and a dazzling laser show to end your nights with a wow.

“This is our favorite time of year,” said Mayor John Noak. “RomeoFest brings our community together like nothing else. It’s a celebration of everything that makes Romeoville such a special place to live, work, and play.”

Admission is free and parking is available along 135th Street and in the parking lot of Joliet Junior College (1125 W. Romeo Road). Shuttle service will be provided from Grand Haven, Irene King School, Hermansen School, R.C. Hill School, and Romeo Crossing Park to make getting to the fest easy and convenient.

RomeoFest runs from 5pm – 10 pm on Thursday, 5 pm – 11 pm on Friday, noon – 11 pm on Saturday, and noon – 7 pm on Sunday.
