The Village of Romeoville Presents Rockin' The Pandemic,
A Socially Distant Summer Concert Series

What's summer without live music? The Village of Romeoville presents "Rockin' the Pandemic, a socially distant summer concert series." Concerts will take place from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. every Thursday, starting August 6 and concluding on August 27. Performances will take place at the Romeoville Toyota Pavilion, located at Deer Crossing Park, 1050 W Romeo Rd, Romeoville. "We are excited to bring more innovative events for the community to enjoy," said Mayor John Noak. "This is a great way to end of our summer season."

Scheduled performers and their musical genres include:

- August 6 – Sixteen Candles (80's Cover Band)
- August 13 – The Country Night (Country)
- August 20 – Heartache Tonight (Eagles Tribute Band)
- August 27 – Anthem (Classic Rock)

Ticket registration will be open to residents only. Pre-registration is required and will open 6 days in advance of each concert and closes 24 hours prior to the event. Guests will have 3 seating levels, at various price points, to select from when purchasing their tickets. To support local businesses, every pod and ticket sale will also include one coupon, valued at the price of the pod or ticket, to use at the Concession Stand. Concessions provided by Fat Ricky's.

To adhere to COVID-19 Phase 4 guidelines, only 24 "pods" and 50 individual tickets will be available. Pods are 18' spaces that will be marked out in the designated areas and can fit up to 6 people max. Pods may not merge with other guests or pods. One resident will reserve the pod and can invite up to 5 additional guests. Social distancing is strongly encouraged, and masks will be required to enter the park, while getting concessions, and going to the restroom. Masks can be removed when inside a designated pod or individual viewing spot.

Tickets for the first concert on August 6 will be available for purchase beginning on Friday, July 31, at 9:00 a.m. For complete details visit www.romeoville.org/events.
